

Private Prep “Learn to Thrive” Scholarship Program Class of 2025

The Private Prep “Learn to Thrive” Scholarship Program was created to support and empower students from backgrounds that have been traditionally underrepresented in higher education. The scholarship program’s goal is to combat the systemic inequities, particularly race-based inequities, of the American education institution by helping our students develop and employ skills that will allow them to create greater opportunities for their futures. While guiding our students through the standardized test prep and/or college application processes, we seek to provide them with counseling, resources, and experiential knowledge that will equip them to make informed and empowered decisions along their paths to higher education and beyond.

The Private Prep “Learn to Thrive” Scholarship Program Core Values:

- We are committed to creating a more just and equitable society.
- We believe that education is power.
- We are dedicated to creating space and opportunity for students to self-reflect and self-actualize.

What our program offers:

Our program is modular and flexible to provide students with support based on their individual needs. Students may be awarded any of the following offerings in addition to an initial consultation with a director who will serve as an ongoing resource throughout the process.

1) Test Prep

- Diagnostic tests and analysis to determine whether a student should pursue testing and whether the SAT or ACT would be a better fit
- 1:1 online tutoring sessions for 4-6 months to prepare for up to two real administrations of the exam
- Materials for independent work assignments in between sessions
- Proctored practice tests and analysis of results

2) Comprehensive College Admissions

- Comprehensive and personalized 1:1 guidance and mentoring through the full college application process, including:
  - Building a college list that fits a student’s goals and preferences
  - Discussion of different admissions strategies
  - Managing the application timeline
  - Filling out applications, and support with brainstorming, editing, and refining all application essays, for up to twelve colleges and universities, in addition to college scholarship applications and fly-in programs if appropriate

3) College Essay Support

- Support with brainstorming, editing, and refining all application essays, including college scholarship applications and fly-in programs if appropriate

Ideal candidates meet the following criteria:

All candidates:

- Possesses a strong desire to attend a four-year college or university
- Demonstrated extracurricular interests, commitment to community, and/or significant family responsibilities
- Unweighted GPA of 3.5 or above in a rigorous course load within their school context (AP, Honors, IB)
- Eligible for free or reduced lunch or 90%+ scholarship at an independent school
- Preference will be given to students from historically underrepresented communities and to 1st generation college-bound students
- US citizen or DACA student

Candidates for the test prep scholarship:

- Diagnostic SAT score of 1200+ or ACT of 25+
- Completion of Algebra 2/Trigonometry prior to 11th grade recommended
- Students who do not meet the testing threshold will be considered for a college admissions scholarship

Private Prep “Learn to Thrive” Scholarship Program Application

The Private Prep “Learn to Thrive” Scholarship Program was created to support and empower students from backgrounds that have been traditionally underrepresented in higher education. The scholarship program’s goal is to combat the systemic inequities, particularly race-based inequities, of the American education institution by helping our students develop and employ skills that will allow them to create greater opportunities for their futures. While guiding our students through the standardized test prep and/or college application processes, we seek to provide them with counseling, resources, and experiential knowledge that will equip them to make informed and empowered decisions along their paths to higher education and beyond.

This scholarship program is awarded to students who demonstrate financial need, a track record of academic excellence, and a commitment to the “Learn to Thrive” program. Our application review is holistic, and is designed to mirror the college application process. We hope that this can be a useful exercise and want it to be as helpful as possible, so please feel free to ask questions and seek feedback at any point in the process.

Written Response 1) List and briefly describe all extracurricular activities you have participated in during the last twelve months, both inside and outside of school. This can include family commitments, leadership positions, school clubs, sports, jobs, community service, volunteer activities, hobbies, etc. Everything counts!

2) Tutoring will be online (unless available in-person) and will take place during or after school hours. Sessions typically run 60-90 minutes long. Please indicate ALL of your availability for weekly tutoring sessions from October through June.

Midweek Monday-Friday:

Weekend Saturday-Sunday:

Any additional comments about scheduling/availability:

3) Please let us know your current thinking about your college goals: major/program of interest, extracurricular opportunities, type of campus, location, size, campus culture, etc. If you have any dream schools, tell us! Please also address your interest in attending school further away from home. While this is not a requirement, our goal is to help our Scholars graduate as close to debt-free as possible, and sometimes the best financial aid opportunities may be found at colleges further from home.

4) College application essays aren't just sources of stress — they also offer chances for self-reflection, and can even be fun. To that end, we've chosen a few of our favorite questions asked by real colleges on their applications. You are invited to respond with either a traditional essay (300 words maximum) OR a two-minute video (filmed on a phone is fine! We can accept m4v, .mp4, and .mov files). No preference is given to either format in our admission decision.

1. What is your favorite word and why? (UVA)

2. We know you lead a busy life, full of activities, many of which are required of you. Tell us about something you do simply for the pleasure of it. (MIT)

3. Tell us about the place, or places, you call home. These can be physical places where you have lived, or a community or group that is important to you. (Brown)

Scholarship Release Form

From time to time, our marketing team will reach out to scholarship students and their families in an effort to learn more about their experience with our program. Our goal is to celebrate the hard work of our students and highlight their educational journey through occasional blog and social media posts, featured website content, and more. This is a completely voluntary opportunity and refusal will in no way impact a student's eligibility for our scholarship program. By signing this form, you are granting permission for our team to utilize the name and likeness of your child in these efforts.
